

Are past convictions affecting your present & your future? Get the facts on how to apply for a Non-Inmate Pardon to clear your record

If you have completed your Sentence, Parole and Probation and are violation-free for at least 5 years, you MAY be eligible for a Pardon to expunge your criminal record

Get the facts from the Connecticut Pardon Team via our website
<http://www.connecticutpardonteam.org>

2006—2007 Hearing Dates and Locations

Hearing Date	Court Location	Application Due Date
May 21, 2007	Middletown Superior Court	February 15, 2007
August 27, 2007	Bridgeport Superior Court	May 15, 2007
November 19, 2007	Hartford Superior Court	August 15, 2007

Save the date: Wednesday, February 28, 2007—Pardon Forum in Stamford

Prepare for the May 15th Pardon Application deadline—hearings will be in Bridgeport, CT

CTE Center—34 Woodland Avenue, Stamford, CT 06902

6:30 pm until 8:30 pm

Registration required via our website by February 21st—you can also download the most recent Pardon Package, check out our FAQ section or just send us an email to get your questions answered—visit our website at <http://www.connecticutpardonteam.org>, or call us toll-free at 1-866-251-3810.

The Connecticut Pardon Team is ready to assist you

Jacqueline Caron

Atty. Linda J. Sullivan

Dianne M. Daniels, AICI

Richard A. Caron, Sr.

Disclaimer: The Forums and Services provided by the Connecticut Pardon Team do NOT guarantee your filing will be successful, as each individual's case is a separate matter.

The services of the Connecticut Pardon Team are not a substitute for legal advice.